Team Name: Growth At All Costs
Report Number: 1
Reporting Week: Jan 13 – Jan 19

Summary of work completed in prior week:

Created the Slack workspace and Github repository for the project and started to plan for the requirements interview. Also discussed what languages we were most comfortable working with, as well as the kind of product that we wanted to make.

Summary of work planned for next week:

Create a list of criteria and questions for the requirements interview. Once the interview is conducted, go over the information and decide if another interview is needed, and start planning the development of the product.

Open issues and action plan to resolve them:

No open issues currently.
